RIOTS IN CAIRO

POLICE FIRE ON FRENZIED MOB.

MANY KILLED

GOVERNOR'S MOTOR SMASHED.

Cairo, Yesterday. Six demonstrators were killed and three injured—Wafd sources say that the numbers were 8 and 46—by Police rifle fire during the riots at Beni Suef, and seven Policemen were injured.

The riot followed the arrival of Nahas Pasha, the ex-Premier, and six other prominent Wafd officials by motor car.

Police Stoned.

Later. It now appears that eight rioters were killed and 10 wounded and 15 Police injured in the riots at Beni Suef. The crowd stoned the Police who at first vainly fired warning shots in the air, then fired on the crowd, which finally dispersed.

Governor Attacked.

The Prime Minister, interviewed, stated that the casualties at Beni Suef totalled four rioters killed and 11 wounded and 15 Policemen injured, of whom one was very seriously wounded. Another had his leg broken.

The Police fired in self-defence. The crowd was enormous and the rioters smashed the Governor of Beni Suef's motor car and injured the chauffeur.

Three ambulance officers were injured and the ambulances damaged, whilst a cafe belonging to an Egyptian was sacked. Beni Suef is in darkness, the electric wires having been cut.

Forces have been sent to intercept Nahas Pasha's party on their return to Cairo and bring them to Parquet, where the Attorney-General will interrogate them.—

Britain to Intervene?

The Premier said that Egyptian troops had been sent to Beni Suef, but the town is now quiet. All necessary measures have been taken in Cairo. Events in Beni Suef have proved that the opposition are bent on inciting the mobs to disorder with the object of making Great Britain intervene.—Reuter.

MAN FROM CALCUTTA.

Arrested in London on a Bigamy Charge.

When John Thompson, aged 28, a school teacher, was arrested at the First Avenue Hotel, Holborn, so it was said, at Bow Street Police Court, he said to the detective, "I expected you at the boat. I tried to get a divorce, but she would not divorce me."

Thompson was charged under the Fugitive Offenders Act with committing bigamy in Calcutta. He was remanded in custody.

POLAR EXPEDITION BELIEVED SAFE.

Party Not Equipped with Wireless.

LACK OF INFORMATION.

London, Yesterday. No importance is attached by the London authority on the British Arctic Air Expedition at the absence of information of the whereabouts of Watkins and his two companions, as they are not equipped with wireless or other means of communication, and carry five week's provisions.

Ice Barriers Progress.

Angmagsalik, Yesterday. The Swedish aviator Ahrenberg has arrived here from Reykjavik, but has found it inadvisable to proceed further immediately, owing to ice forming on the wings of his machine.—Reuter.

British Co-operation. Rugby, Saturday. The British aviator, Major Sidney Cotton, is to sail on Monday for Reykjavik, Iceland, to take part in the efforts to rescue Mr. Augustine Courtauld, the young British explorer, who is marooned on an icecap in Greenland.

Captain Ahrenberg, the Swedish aviator, who set out from Stockholm for Greenland on Wednesday, landed at Reykjavik last night, and the patrol boat Odin, carrying a seaplane, has engaged in the search, has arrived at the ice barrier which surrounds the coast of Greenland.—British Wireless Service.

Earlier News. Copenhagen, Saturday.

Search parties which are scouring the Arctic regions for Mr. Augustine Courtauld, son of the British millionaire silk magnate, who has been marooned on a survey station in Greenland since November, are now looking for Mr. H. G. Watkins, one of the rescue party, of whom nothing has been heard for a fortnight.

Mr. Watkins is the leader of the British Arctic Air Route Expedition, and with two companions set out to search for Mr. Courtauld a fortnight ago. Nothing has been heard of them since.

They are apparently roaming on a vast ice sheet in the interior of Greenland. They had only a few provisions when they set out. After working feverishly night and day two members of the Watkins expedition who had been left behind at Angmagsalik, completed repairs on the Moth plane, which crashed in February, and left this morning for the expedition base island from where they will begin their search.

The relief ship Odin has reached the ice barrier and is now lying dangerously near the edge of the ice, which is eight yards thick, in Lat. 65.25 N., and Long. 34.50 W.

The Swedish aviator Ahrenberg has arrived at Reykjavik, Iceland, and has joined in the search.—Reuter.

CAPE FLIGHT.

FLIGHT-LIEUT. ROSE'S PROGRESS.

BULAWAYO REACHED.

London, Saturday. Flight Lieutenant Rose, in his attempt to fly from Capetown to London in four days and a half, arrived at Bulawayo yesterday from Capetown after covering 11,000 miles in 12½ hours.

He left before midnight, hoping to reach Tabora by noon and Kisumu by nightfall.—British Wireless Service.

Bad weather on the Continent has compelled Captain Stack to return to Lympne.]

TROTSKY AGAIN.

DESIRES TO RESIDE IN SPAIN.

Constantinople, Yesterday.

Mr. Trotsky has telegraphed to the President of the Spanish and Catalan Republics asking for permission to reside in Spain.

The Spanish Foreign Minister recently indicated that permission would be granted, providing all precautions were taken.—Reuter.

JAPANESE AIRMAN'S LONE FLIGHT.

"Eagle of Japan" Hops Off for Alaska.

London, Yesterday. Seiji Yoshihara, known as the "lone eagle of Japan," hopped off unaccompanied at 10.10 a.m. today for Numazaki, north-east of Japan, on the first stage of a trans-Pacific flight via the Aleutians and Alaska.

The flight is being sponsored by the newspaper Hochi Shimbun. The aviator is using a light plane.—Reuter.

FLIGHT ABANDONED

MACHINE NOT TUNED UP FOR THE VOYAGE.

RETURNING TO BRITAIN.

Constantinople, Yesterday. Captain Neville Stack and his companion Chaplin have abandoned their Britain to Australia flight owing to their machine not being tuned up for the hazardous project, and damage to the accumulator, which has delayed them here. They will fly back to Britain to-morrow. The outward journey from there—1,660 miles—was covered in 15 hours with a stop of 40 minutes at Vienna.

Earlier Cable.

London, Saturday.

Captain Neville Stack took off at dawn for the first stage of his flight to London.

Captain Stack interviewed before his departure, emphasised that they did not want to "show anybody up."

They considered that the Imperial Airways and the Post Office knew their own business best.

The object of the flight was to do the double journey, which had not hitherto been done. If successful, it would demonstrate the possibility of a fast air mail service.—Reuter.

[An earlier message stated:—

Another attempt to demonstrate the feasibility of speeding up the Imperial air mail services is being made by Captain Neville Stack, accompanied by Mr. J. R. Chaplin.

They left Lympne at daybreak to-day, in an effort to fly to Australia and back in twenty-one days.

He left before midnight, hoping to reach Tabora by noon and Kisumu by nightfall.—British Wireless Service.

Bad weather on the Continent has compelled Captain Stack to return to Lympne.]

hurt.—Reuter.

CANTON COUP

CHIANG KAI-SHEK UNIMPEACHED.

PLEA FOR UNITY

S.O.S. BY CANTON EX-POLICE CHIEF.

Nanking, Yesterday. In spite of Marshal Chiang Kai-shek's expressed willingness for the charges against him to be investigated, the Central Control Committee has stated that the impeachment made by four of the Committee's members at Canton would not be considered.

This important fact emerges from the publication, this evening, of documents dealing with the political situation. It is also revealed that Wu Tien-chien, ex-Police Chief of Canton, had wired to Canton urging the Cantonese to preserve the unification of the country, declaring that Chiang Kai-shek and other Government officials are urging Hu Han-min to attend the National Convention.

This S.O.S. definitely disproves reports of his detention.

Earlier Cable.

Nanking, Saturday. It is understood that the Government leaders discussed the Canton situation to-day.

The belief is expressed here that the trouble is purely local and due chiefly to personal disputes between Chen Chi-tong and Chen Ming-shu.

It is expected that the Government will shortly issue a statement of its attitude, and it is understood that Chen Ming-shu will be severely reprimanded for his "serious blunders" and removed from his post, Chen Chi-tong to be reorganized Kwangtung.—Reuter.

Her public examination stands adjourned until May 12.

A receiving order was made against Miss Schintz in July last year.

The account shows that £68,609 of the gross liabilities are expected to rank.

Assets (apart from some pictures at Zurich, and "rights to royalties," the value of which are unknown) are estimated to produce £7,075, but this amount is absorbed by preferential claims for rates, taxes, wages, and other things.

The Official Receiver states that Miss Schintz has not yet been fully examined on her affairs owing to the state of her health.

In the opinion of the Official Receiver Miss Schintz's failure is due to the heavy losses sustained through the financing of a motor-tire distributing agent and his companies.

Miss Schintz's father gave her in 1908 a freehold estate known as Thirkhorn, near Kenilworth, Coventry, which cost about £66,000.

In 1913, on the death of her father, she became entitled under his will to an interest in a settlement, and also in a trust fund of £160,000, together with other interests representing £1,000,000.

In 1919 she purchased the freehold property known as Ottershaw Park.

It is stated that for a number of years Miss Schintz has been concerned in numerous lawsuits, principally against the co-trustees of her late father's will.

COMEDY OF SAFE.

FOUND ABOARD ILL-FATED LIMCHOW.

SEARCH FOR $700.

A Rubelaisian incident concerning the salvaging of property on the ill-fated steamer Limchow was related to a China Mail representative on Saturday.

The s.s. Limchow, which went aground off Pochin Pagoda, in Hainan Strait, and was later salvaged by the Henry Keswick after H.M.S. Sterling had been sent to protect the salvage workers, was towed into harbour last Saturday at 6.30 p.m. She was docked at Kowloon Docks.

Mysterious Safe.

During the past week, workmen discovered a safe of sorts, which was very large in size. Nobody claimed it, and this gave rise to suspicion and so the Police were communicated with.

The authorities suspected that $7,000 in notes were concealed in the safe. So, on Saturday morning, a score of coolies carried the safe off the ship, and in the presence of two Consuls, four Police officers, a Customs officer, and Dock officials, it was decided to open it. After penetrating five locks, one after the other, the final door was opened. But there were no dollar notes to be seen, and, to the amazement of the lookers-on, two cockroaches calmly walked out!

Japan's "Lone Eagle."

The very brief cablegram sent by Reuter from Tokyo to-day naturally fails to convey any idea of the enormous interest created all over Japan — and much further abroad — by the solo flight across the Pacific by Seiji Yoshihara, Japan's "Lone Eagle."

This perilous flight over a route which has as yet never been flown eastwards, although a few such daring pioneers as Lieut. Bromley and Harold Gatty have made the attempt in vain, is being made in the same type of machine as the "Hochi," the plane which Yoshihara used in his Berlin-Tokyo journey. It is a Junkers all-metal A.50 light monoplane, fitted with an 80 h.p.
Genet engine. The machine has convertible under-carriages for both land and water flights. Its total weight is only 380 kilograms. Yoshihara figures that the total flying hour for the journey will be about 77 hours.

Owing to the limited fuel capacity of the machine, the flight will be made in stages. His first stop outside of Japanese territory will be at Petropavlovsk, the port on the eastern coast of Kamchatka. Thence the monoplane will fly north-eastward to Cape Kronotski, and from here it will take an eastward course toward Commandorospy Island.

At Attu Island on the western extremity of the Aleutian Islands, where there is a fishing village, Yoshihara will rest the wings of his plane, and then will start off on a 1,700 k.m. hop across the Aleutian Islands. The next stop will be made at Dutch Harbour, on the island of Unalaska.

country like Japan and of its success I do not entertain the least doubt. All my colleagues in the institution I represent in Japan
join with me sincerely in trusting that Mr. Yoshihara will get across safely and tender to the American people the goodwill message that the flight sponsored by the Hochi Shimbum represents.

The Hon. Herbert Marler,
Canadian Minister to Japan, states:—"The bridging of the Pacific Ocean by air is a logical development of the contacts already established by steamship, cable and radio; and any pioneers in this modern effort to knit the nations of east and west together by air deserve the most whole-hearted encouragement and support. The proposed flight, therefore, of Mr. Seiji Yoshihara, sponsored by the Hochi Shimbum of Tokyo, from Japan to the United States of America by way of the Northern Pacific and Canada, is a pioneering venture for which I extend my sincere good wishes. I am confident that such a goodwill flight will not only make a valuable contribution to the development of aviation in the Pacific area, but will also contribute to a further strengthening of the good relations between the neighbouring countries on the eastern and western shores of the Pacific Ocean."

The best wishes of all in this Colony will go out to Japan's "Lone Eagle" for the success of his pioneer flight!

News in Brief.

The lowest open air temperature yesterday was 69 degrees. The humidity at 10 a.m. was 86 and at 4 p.m. 84.

A curious misprint: "Everton lose to Leeds:—Of course it was Preston North End who swallowed Everton Toffee."

Po Kap-ting, a Chinese merchant from the country, reported to the Police on Saturday that he was robbed of $1,720 whilst he was asleep in room 35 at the Empress Hotel.

Receiving a bodily injury through falling down the gangway of the s.s. Kwong Hip Loong, a man, Chung Kwong-lan was on Saturday removed to the Government Civil Hospital. His condition is not serious.

The forthcoming wedding is announced of James Young, electrical engineer, of the China Light and Power Co., Ltd.; Kowloon Tong, and Annie Mary Victoria Bennett, en route to Hong Kong on the motor vessel Yasukuni Maru.

Three months' imprisonment was inflicted on Yan Pul-lan, who was convicted at the Kowloon Police Court this morning of the larceny of $1.90 from a Chinese pedestrian who was watching a street show.

A Chinese restaurant keeper of Des Voeux Road, Hong Kong, has notified the Police that whilst dis-embarking from the C.P.S. Empress of Russia, he lost from his baggage a length of black silk, measuring 50 feet and valued at $10.

His Highness the Maharaja of Jind and his suite are due to arrive on the s.s. Cracovia. During his three days in Hong Kong, His Highness will be staying at the Peninsula Hotel, where a whole wing has been reserved for him.

Chen Tsai, an unemployed Chinese, was sent to prison at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning for three weeks for stealing a pair of shoes from a stall in Kowloon. He was chased by the stall holder but escaped.
Later he was again seen and chased by a Chinese detective, but got away. He was finally caught by a Sanitary Officer.

Mr. Seiji Yoshihara is no mere novice. He proved how airworthy he was and his skill as a pilot when he flew last year from Berlin to Tokyo, cleverly negotiating that vast distance, especially the immense steppes of Siberia. This makes one feel confident that he will achieve his present objective and that the glory of triumphant success will crown his efforts.

The Hochi Shimbum is to be warmly congratulated on its public-spirited and far-seeing vision, for Mr. Yoshihara is utilizing man's latest invention for annihilating distance — and an American invention at that — to convey to the great people of the United States the ever-increasing friendship of the Japanese for them.

The undertaking is a very ambitious one, well worthy of a progressive and forward-looking

country like Japan and of its success I do not entertain the least doubt. All my colleagues in the institution I represent in Japan
join with me sincerely in trusting
that Mr. Yoshihara will get across safely and tender to the American people the goodwill message that the flight sponsored

sents.

SOLICITOR EJECTED FROM AN INQUEST.

Trouble Over Question Put to Witness.

PROTEST IGNORED.

After a scene with Dr. Cohen, the Wembley coroner, Mr. Edgar Hiscock, a solicitor, was ejected from court by three policemen.

The coroner objected when Mr. Hiscock put a question to a witness about drunkenness, and the solicitor refused to sit down.

The inquest concerned the death of Richard Dugay, aged 33, of Deacon Road, Willesden Green, who was killed on a Sunday night, when a car in which he was a passenger, crashed through a fence at the side of Forty Avenue, Wembley Park, and overturned into a muddy ditch.

Coroner's Rebuke.

Evidence was being given by Mr. Edward Charles Chapman, of Neasden Lane, Willesden, who, with his wife, was passenger in the car.

Mr. Chapman had stated, in reply to Mr. Hiscock, who represented the family, that he met the driver of the car, Benjamin Floyd, of Woodneys Road, Neasden, on the Sunday evening at the Great Central Sports Pavilion, Sudbury, where Floyd had one drink.

Mr. Hiscock then went on to ask what Mr. Chapman would say if it was stated that Floyd was drunk.

The Coroner: You cannot say that unless you call witnesses to prove that he was the worse for drink. I cannot let you ask any more questions. That was a most improper one. Please sit down.

"I Insist."

"You have no right whatever to say that," retorted Mr. Hiscock.

"Sit down," ordered the coroner.

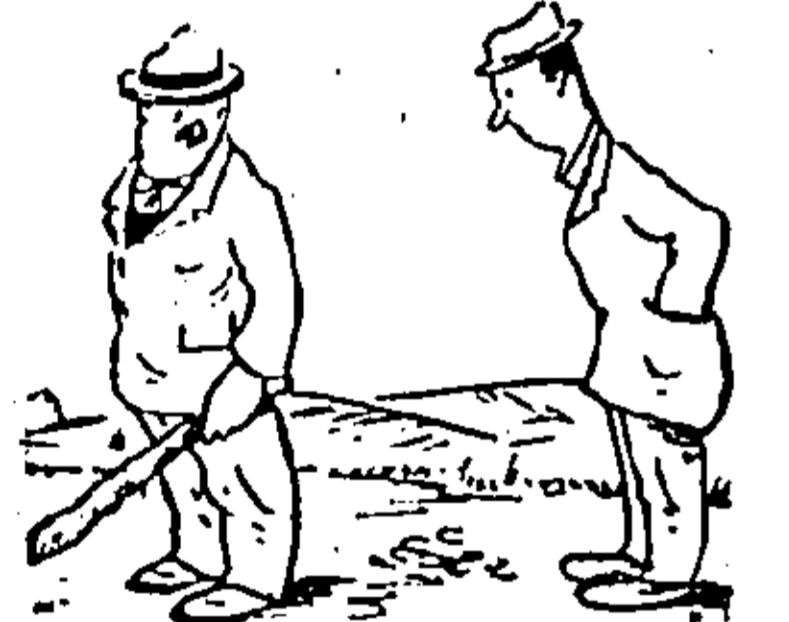

"I insist," Mr. Hiscock went on.

"You will be removed from the court if you do not sit down," warned the coroner.

Mr. Hiscock: You have no power to remove me. I shall ask you to give a proper ruling.

The Coroner: I have given a proper ruling.

Mr. Hiscock: I am here to protect the family. Will you tell

"Collecting mushrooms with a stick."

"Yes, in case I meet some poisonous ones." — Pages Gaiers, Yverdon.

me what power you have to remove any attorney from the court?

"It is not my intention to say anything further," remarked the coroner, and, as Mr. Hiscock still protested, turned to his officer and said, "If he doesn't sit down he must be removed."

"You have no right," declared Mr. Hiscock again.

Mr. Hiscock resisted, and two other officers, putting their hands on his shoulders, pushed him several paces towards the door. Mr. Hiscock demanded his papers. These were handed to him. He objected to the police officers putting their hands on him, and was then ejected.

The Coroner then said that he would not allow a solicitor to suggest that a man was drunk without calling any evidence to support it.

He added that it was only fair that the family of the dead man should have an opportunity of being represented and, for this purpose, adjourned the inquest.

A COURT SITTING.

The Policeman On The Ventilator.

A doctor giving evidence in the King's Bench Division remarked that it was bad for the health to get into a stuffy atmosphere such as that of some courts.

Mr. Justice Horridge: But judges are long-lived.

Mr. Du Parcq, K.C., mentioned that a predecessor of Mr. Justice Horridge used to have all the windows shut.

Mr. Justice Horridge: He took every precaution for excluding air, even stopping the ventilator by asking a policeman to sit on it. (Laughter).

The L. G. Balfour Jewellery Company of Attleboro, Mass., has definitely decided to locate its Canadian branch factory at Sherbrooke, Que., according to an advice from the industrial commissioner, and has already taken up offices preparatory to equipping its factory.

ROUND THE CINEMAS

GENIUS OF LAWRENCE TIBBETT.

"NEW MOON."

The genius of Mr. Lawrence Tibbett and Miss Grace Moore as opera singers is unfolded on the screen of the Queen's Theatre where they appear in the leading roles in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's all talking picture "New Moon." The theme song is "Lover Come Back To Me" and this is sung beautifully by both stars.

"New Moon" is a picture whose story tells of the betrayal of a Lieutenant's lover for a Governor, and in the course of the narrative, it is revealed that the officer is sent to an outpost where his life is endangered by Khurzil troops.

Lawrence Tibbett is cast as the dashing Lieutenant, Michael Petroff, whilst the role of Princess Tanya Strogoff is admirably enacted by Grace Moore. As the Governor, Adolphe Menjou is not impressive, whilst Gus Shy, who appeared in the college film, "Good News," is seen as Polkin, the Lieutenant's batman. Roland Young carries all before him in the role of Count Strogoff, which ejects much dry humour. Emily Fitzroy enacts the part of Countess Strogoff, with marked dignity.

The film contains a most realistic battle scene, made so by wonderful photographic effects. Tibbett also sings "What Is Your Price, Madam?" "The Farmer's Daughter" and "Stout Hearted Men." Grace Moore sings "One Kiss" and "Wanting You." The recording of these songs throughout is exceptionally clear and pleasing.

Preceding the feature film, there is screened a Hearst Metrotone Newsreel, which depicts Gar Wood making a trial run in Miss America IX. A sound comedy entitled "Angora Love" and starring Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, is most amusing.

"RENEGADES."

Those who have earnestly wished that the talking screen would not confine drama to dialogue should see "Renegades," now playing in the King's Theatre, for action is the predominant note. In this story, obviously inspired by the "Beau Geste" tradition, Moorish parapets, the "Legion of Fallen Men," Arabs, and tough officers are there in even more concentrated quantities than in the illustrious predecessor, but atmosphere in no way hampers the really vigorous trend of events.

Warner Baxter in the leading role of an outcast is appealing in spite of his stern severity, although his utterances tend to become a bit too melodramatic at times. He is at his best in a fight.

Miss Myrna Loy is a veritable "hell-cat" and how any woman ever came by such a peculiarly shaped face should be a source of eternal wonder. Were it not for her essential femininity and her deadly charm; her crooked mouth, her irregular eye-brows, her three-cornered face and her weird eyes would serve as passport into any freak show. Her one big moment in "Renegades" is brief and comes at the end of the show. In the death scene she approaches dramatic art.

Noah Beery is his usual ugly and excellent self in the story.

"SEE AMERICA THIRST."

A complete departure from the usual type of feature length comedies, "See America Thirst," now the attraction at the Central Theatre, is one of the most extraordinary and highly entertaining films that has ever been offered to the theatre-going public in several years.

Picture Slim Summerville and Harry Langdon, two of the screen's most mirth-convulsive actors, mistaken for two notorious gunmen hired by a rum-running gang to "bump off" a rival leader and you have the essence of the plot of this hilarious satire.

Seldom have audiences been offered funnier situations than those created in this timely satire on gang life in America. The story deals with an exciting adventure in the lives of two "knights of the road" who take leave from a side-door, pullman and are swept up by a storm of circumstances which involves them in a whirlwind succession of unexpected events. They become unashamedly affiliated with a gang of rum racketeers, and the most hilarious incidents that might be imagined follow in rapid succession.

Langdon and Summerville make a team which has seldom been equalled on the screen. Perfectly cast for their roles, Harry and Slim sail through situations that go to make "See America Thirst," the most distinctive comedy of an impressive talking picture season.

Bessie Love, who plays the part of an aide to the district attorney's office, by posing as a cabaret dancer, is a lively factor in the picture.

GERMAN AIR RACE.

STRANDED AND STARVING IN A DESERT.

The famous German air ace, Ernst Udet, who was one of Richthofen's "flying circus" during the War, and claims to have brought down more than sixty Allied machines, has had a narrow escape from slow death in the heart of the dangerous, unpopulated Sudd country in the Sudan.

He owes his life to Captain Campbell Black, the British airman who acted as the Prince of Wales' temporary pilot in East Africa last year.

While flying to England after completing a film of Tanganyika, during which he was charged by a rhinoceros, Udet was forced to land in the Sudd territory.

Captain Black, who was flying to Kenya from England, was informed at Khartoum that Udet was missing. He kept a sharp look-out along his route, and eventually sighted a machine in the heart of a mass of dense scrub.

Captain Black landed and found Udet alive but on the verge of starvation.

He replenished the German's exhausted supplies of food, water, and cigarettes, and, continuing his flight to Juba, wired to Khartoum, thus enabling Udet to be rescued by R.A.F. machines.

Other important characters are played by Mitchell Lewis, Matthew Betz, Stanley Fields, Dick Alexander, and Lloyd Whitlock.

The story was written for the screen by Vin Moore and Edward Luddy and directed by William J. Craft, who recently created "The Little Accident" for Universal.

"PAID."

Chalk up the long-distance dialogue writing championship to Charles MacArthur. After finishing the script for "Paid," Joan Crawford's new starring vehicle which will open shortly at the Queen's Theatre, MacArthur had to go to New York to complete work on a play.

After the writer departed, however, Director Sam Wood discovered he had overlooked an entire sequence which was to be filmed at once. Reaching MacArthur at 1 a.m. by long-distance telephone, Wood disclosed his plight.

"O.K.," responded MacArthur, "put your stenographer on the wire and I'll dictate it."

Delay Avoided.

At 2.30 a.m. MacArthur went sleepily back to bed and the stenographer began transcribing her notes, having the sequence dialogue ready for work at 9 a.m. Thus perhaps an entire week's delay on production was avoided.

The picture is a talkie version of the famous Bayard Veiller underworld drama, "Within the Law," adapted for the screen by MacArthur and Lucien Hubbard, Robert Armstrong, and Marlo Prevost head the supporting cast.

Langdon and Summerville make a team which has seldom been equalled on the screen. Perfectly cast for their roles, Harry and Slim sail through situations that go to make "See America Thirst," the most distinctive comedy of an impressive talking picture season.

Bessie Love, who plays the part of an aide to the district attorney's office, by posing as a cabaret dancer, is a lively factor in the picture.

THE DOUBLES FINAL
VERY OPEN.

Serious Challenge to the Holders.

SURPRISE IN STORE?

(By "Base Line.") After the Singles Final I feel very restrained to comment upon the probable result of the Doubles Final. The close observance of form leads one into a labyrinth of tricky paths and traps innumerable, but, nevertheless, I will assay a forecast—if J. A. E. Cassumbhay is not deterred by the importance of the occasion the challenging pair will wrest the title from the grasp of those who have held it for so long.

In C. A. L. Rumjahn, after his sterling display on Thursday, I have the greatest faith. It would give me very great pleasure to see him carry off the "double," though he will be up against a combination which allows for little baseline duelling and gives no quarter at the net. Cassumbhay is a player with a good tennis career in front of him though he is apt to get flurried when participating in an important game such as the one this afternoon. I have seen him play singles this year and was greatly impressed by his improvement though I did not relish some glaring examples of over-impulsiveness on his part. The same, I feel, will rest upon the form shown by Cassumbhay but at the same time I cannot forget the brilliance shown by the Rumjahn cousins on "big" occasions.

Last year when these four met in the semi-final, the challengers captured the first two sets, more by surprising tactics than exceptionally brilliant play. Should they surprise their opponents this afternoon to the same extent they will probably win in straight sets. Their lack of experience in 1930 can almost be discounted this year, and, with a visible falling off in the play of the holders, I feel that the challengers have a very fair chance of winning. I am not, however, prepared to take even wagers on either pair, so close will be the fight for the championship.

For the last six years the Rumjahn cousins have held sway in local tennis circles. Is "seven" their lucky number or not? Last year they defeated their rivals of this afternoon in the semi-final by 4-6, 3-6, 6-3, 6-0, 6-2.

R.A.O.B. AT PLAY.

DEADLY STRUGGLE AT STONECUTTERS.

HONOURS EVEN.

Junior N.C.O.'s, at Stonecutters, entertained members of the R.A.O.B. yesterday, when various sporting events were entered into. Billiards, crib, tennis and snooker were played with great zest, but on their own table, the Junior N.C.O.'s were almost invincible. Mr. Hollywood retrieved very bad position to win the first game for the R.A.O.B., this being the keenest game of the evening.

The Junior N.C.O.'s side had already won the tennis by two sets, but after the billiards, two true and worthy members in Messrs. Holloway and House took a fierce "crib" encounter from Bombardier Mathieson and L/Bombardier McDonald.

Snooker "Shocks."

Tremendous excitement ensued when Messrs. Cook and Bateman took on the prize snooker players at Stonecutters, Messrs. Worthington and Wellington. The R.A.O.B. took this match by two games to nil. Encouraged by this result, Messrs. Thomas and Crawley beat Messrs. Tealey and McDonald by two games to one. Messrs. Holt and Bradley went into the next match brimful of confidence, Lance Bombardier Smith and Dyer being beaten by two games to nil.

Mr. H. Cook and L/Bombardier A. E. Willis then obliged the company with a little melody. Bombardiers F. Willis and Mathieson were heard to great advantage in the "Brothers" Malone, Mr. Cook accompanying in his usual able manner.

L/Bombardier Bateman, after much persuasion, was prevailed upon to "do his stuff," his colleague, L/Bombardier Smith, joining in. We hope to hear Mr. Bateman again, without assistance!

A convivial evening closed at 10.45 after the usual exchange of good wishes.

LAWN BOWLS.

"BAPTISM" OF THE NEW SEASON.

FLOODED GREENS.

Saturday should have witnessed the commencement of another Lawn Bowls League season, but owing to the very heavy rain none of the games was started except those between the Club de Recreio and the Civil Service C.C. at King's Park (Division I.) and the K.C.C. and K.B.G.C. (Division II.).

At King's Park the match was stopped after only two ends had been played, the Club de Recreio then leading by an aggregate of three shots.

In the K.C.C.—K.B.G.C. match three ends were played, the latter holding an aggregate lead of two shots.

Both matches will be resumed at some future date at the stage at which play ceased on Saturday.

Saturday's Games.

The programme for Saturday next is as under:

Division I.

C.S.C.C. (76) v. Police (39). K.C.C. (58) v. Kowloon Deck (78). K.B.G.C. (69) v. C.C.C. (66). Recreio (68) v. Talkou (63).

Division II.

C.C.C. (67) v. K.B.G.C. (75). Yacht Club (62) v. C.S.C.C. (63). Talkou (38) v. Recreio (69). Electric (38) v. K.C.C. (73).

[The figures in parenthesis denote the result last season.]

A boxer must be an all-action fighter to get anywhere in the United States. Harvey, I am convinced, could knock out anyone if he really let himself go—risking punishment in order to punish—Geoffrey Simpson.

CLUB CLOAK-ROOM SCENE.

Member's Suit Against Secretary Settled.

ALLEGED THREATS

The action at Lewes Assizes concerning a scene at the New Club, Brighton, ended in a settlement. Colonel H. V. Bailey apologised to Mr. Davenant Fuller. Mr. Justice McCordie remarked that there was not the slightest stain on Colonel Bailey's character.

Mr. Fuller claimed damages for assault and false imprisonment in the club cloak-room against Colonel Bailey, secretary of the club. He also claimed the return of a document which, he alleged, was obtained from him by duress.

Colonel Bailey denied the assault and claimed damages for slander.

Mr. J. D. Cassels, K.C., and Mr. Geoffrey Lawrence appeared for Mr. Fuller, and Mr. John Flowers, K.C., and Mr. Eric Neve for Colonel Bailey.

Mr. Fuller in evidence stated that he was 69 years of age and had been a member of the club for 26 years. On May 5 last year, he met Dr. Copeman, member of the committee, and during the conversation he (Mr. Fuller) said that he had seen the secretary dining at the club with two guests and asked who paid for them. Dr. Copeman said, "Oh, he pays."

The same day Colonel Bailey told him that Dr. Copeman had said that he (Mr. Fuller) had stated that Colonel Bailey had been entertaining guests at the expense of the club. He replied that there was no truth in it.

The following day he received a letter from Colonel Bailey demanding a withdrawal and an apology, and he wrote denying that he had said that Colonel Bailey had entertained visitors at the expense of the club.

Mr. Fuller said that as he was leaving the club on July 18 Colonel Bailey came into the cloak-room, slammed the door, and said, "I have been waiting for this apology too long. I will now give you the damnedest thrashing you have had in your life."

Colonel Bailey chased him up and down the room with his fists up, at the same time calling him a liar and a skunk.

Mr. Fuller said that he was "all of a shake," and at Colonel Bailey's dictation wrote a letter saying that there was no foundation for what he had said. However, he told Colonel Bailey that there was no truth in it, and he was writing something he did not acknowledge.

The Judge Intervenes. Dr. Alfred H. Copeman, chairman of the directors of the New Club, said that Colonel Bailey, who had been secretary since 1920, was a most devoted servant. He met Mr. Fuller on May 5, and Mr. Fuller, after asking how the club was getting on, said, "The club will never do any good until we get a new secretary."

When Dr. Copeman replied, "On the contrary, I think we have a very good secretary" Mr. Fuller said, "That is more than some of us think."

Dr. Copeman said that he mentioned that Colonel Bailey was getting an inadequate salary. Mr. Fuller said, "He jolly well makes it up in other ways, doesn't he?" I saw him dining there the other night, and I should think he must have been entertaining the whole blessed family."

Colonel Bailey, describing the events on July 18, stated that he followed Mr. Fuller into the cloak-room, and said, "I want to settle this matter of the imputation you have made against me, and I wish you to withdraw it." Mr. Fuller said, "I never said a word about your honesty or entertaining your friends or relations in the club."

Colonel Bailey added that he said, "This thing is going to be settled. You are either going to write a withdrawal of this charge, or I am going to give you a damned good hiding."

Like British Gentlemen.

Mr. Fuller agreed ultimately that he had said something, but it was in the nature of a question and consented to write a withdrawal, the Colonel suggesting the words.

During the cross-examination of Colonel Bailey the judge said the point arose as to whether the parties wished to have the jury's verdict, or whether, like British gentlemen,

WAGES DISPUTE IN 1709.

British Museum Acquisition.

"STAR" ACTORS' EARNINGS.

Interesting light is thrown on a theatrical wages dispute of 1709 by a printed manifesto (hitherto unrecorded) which has been acquired by the Trustees of the British Museum.

The manifesto was issued by Mr. Zachary Baggs, Treasurer at the Theatre Royal in Drury Lane, and entitled "An Advertisement concerning the Poor Actors who under Pretence of Hard Usage from the Patentees are about to desert their Service."

The result is an illuminating comment on the conditions of contemporary stage employment. The famous Mrs. Oldfield, for example, estimated to have secured £252 6s. 7d. in respect of "a fortnight and one day's work." This she achieved by having a benefit performance at this stage in the season, and thereafter refusing to make any further appearances.

Her actual salary was £4 a week. Mr. Betterton was even more fortunate, his salary being unaccountably augmented by "1 pound for a week for his wife, although she does not act." He acted 16 times and received £188 14s. 6d. certain, and more by Guess £450."

The balance is represented by the uncontrolled proceeds of his benefit performance which he skilfully disguised as positively his last appearance. A minimum of half a guinea was charged for all the better seats, and it is recorded that his female admirers paid up to £20 a seat. It is also suggested that he considerably overpaid the available accommodation.

A final statement records that the six comedians, "who are the unsatisfied people, have cleared in all £1,957 3s. 2d." (the season having lasted for 135 acting days). The normal price list reads: Admission to box, 5s.; Pit, 3s.; First Gallery (dress circle), 2s.; Upper Gallery, 1s.

Other Acquisitions.

The King has deposited on permanent loan at the Museum a spear and necklace which were presented to him last year by Ringapati, king of the tribe of Big Nambas of North Malekula in the New Hebrides, in token of his renunciation of cannibalism and his future good will towards white men.

The spear-head, which was formerly kept poisoned and wrapped in leaves, is carved in the form of a conventionalised double head, and the half is blackened with the smoke of the chief's hut.

Other acquisitions include a remarkable Twelfth Century vellum roll of German workmanship depicting eight scenes from the life of John the Baptist, three interesting ivory carvings of the late Roman period, and a number of Anglo-Saxon antiquities found near Nottingham in 1840, which have never been adequately described.

A fragment of what is probably late Roman glass was found together with the latter objects, and was probably regarded by its Saxon owner as a noteworthy antique.

EX-KING DEPARTS.

UNNOTICED BY CROWDS AT VICTORIA STATION.

BOUND FOR PARIS.

London, Saturday. Ex-King Alfonso, accompanied by the Duke of Miranda, left for Paris to-day, unrecognised by the crowd seeing off passengers on the boat train at Victoria Station.—Reuter.

In all parts of New Brunswick the larger lumbering operators, having finished their work a fortnight earlier than usual, report an excellent season, and A. T. Murdoch, chief scaler for the province, speaks of the season as one of the best on record.

they could adjust the matter between themselves.

There was a short adjournment after which Mr. Cassels said that the Court would no longer be troubled with the case. He added that the plaintiff flatly denied having made use of any words which conveyed the meaning of an accusation against Colonel Bailey in the conversation with Dr. Copeman.

He always had regarded Colonel Bailey as a man of honour, and still so regarded him.

Mr. John Flowers said: "With regard to Colonel Bailey, I only have to say this: His honour has been cleared in this matter. With regard to the incident of July 18, he desires me to say that at that time he was suffering from some sense of wrong. He does not attempt to justify what he did on that day, and tender his apologies to Mr. Fuller for what took place."

WILES OF A WOMAN
SMUGGLER.

Opium Concealed in False Sides of Box.

FINED $30,000.

The very clever concealment of about 300 taels of illicit opium in a specially constructed box was mentioned in the Central Police Court this morning, when a Chinese woman was charged before Mr. W. Schofield with unlawful possession of the drug without a permit from H.E. the Governor. Appearing for the defendant, Mr. F. X. d'Almada, junior, said that he was pleading guilty but would like to place a few facts for his Worship's consideration. His client was paid by a boat woman to carry luggage from place to place. He understood that she had an aged mother to support, and also that on this occasion she was paid $2 to carry the box to board-house, and under the circumstances he was entirely in the Magistrate's hands.

"Very Clever."

Revenue Officer Ward, who prosecuted, said that the box, which was produced in Court, had no lock and was fastened with screws at the back. In taking the screws out, one got to the opium, which was concealed in false sides. He described the box as a "very clever one" and went on to say that the woman came down from Macao, and was arrested on the Wing Lok Wharf, after disembarking from the s.s. Sui Tai.

His Worship remarked that the opium was valued at $3,480, and imposed fine of $30,000 with the alternative of one year's hard labour. He directed that the box with all its contents be confiscated.

Another Concealment.

In another case, a Chinese man pleaded guilty to the unlawful possession of 120 taels of raw opium.

Revenue Officer Ward said that the defendant was arrested at 6 o'clock yesterday morning walking along Connaught Road Central. The opium was toed all over his body, and there were rubber straps on defendant's legs.

R. O. Ward explained that the opium was done up so tightly that defendant would not be noticeable in a crowd, but he was alone when caught.

Defendant said that he was promised $6 to carry the drug to a house in Wing Lok Street.

Mr. Schofield imposed a fine of $14,000 with the option of one year's jail with hard labour.

MADEIRA REVOLT.

REBELS SURRENDER TO GOVERNMENT TROOPS.

POSITIONS CAPTURED.

Lisbon, Saturday.

It is officially stated that the rebels in Madeira have surrendered unconditionally to the Government forces.

Lines Bombed.

Just prior to the receipt of the message from Madeira, the rebels had surrendered. A message from the Minister of Marine stated that the troops were advancing on Machico and had captured some positions dominating the town. Warships are bombing the rebels' gun positions and aeroplanes are bombing their lines.—Reuter.

LORD IRWIN.

TRIBUTE TO GREAT WORK
IN INDIA.

COURAGE AND FAITH.

Rugby, Saturday. In connection with Lord Irwin's return to-day the Times, in a leading article pays a high tribute to his work as Viceroy.

It says that he has laboured incessantly to break down two great obstacles to peace and prosperity in India—violent dissensions among Indians themselves and their common deep-seated suspicion of British good faith.

By his own force of character he has succeeded in winning the confidence of all reasonable elements in every quarter of that vast assemblage of communities. His reputation is as high with his colleagues in the administration, with the Princes, and with the Europeans, as with the various leaders of British Indian politics.

Recent events would suggest that his Indian friends have brought to an end, in his memory, that wave of anti-British agitation which has subsided just because he has compelled Mr. Gandhi to recognise his sincerity.

His work as a single Viceroy can never be completed. But at last India knows now the broad outlines of progress which is open to herself; she is capable of making it and placing immediate and absolute limitations upon self-government which her own interests, no less than ours, demand. Lord Irwin has not solved the Indian problem, but he has pointed the way by which courage and faith and patience like his own will solve it in the end.—British Welcome Home.

London, Yesterday.

Lord Irwin, who has just completed a term as Viceroy of India, had a triumphant welcome home, when he arrived at Victoria Station accompanied by his wife to-day. There was a great galaxy on the special platform, while huge crowds besieged the precincts of the station, anxious to join in the hearty greetings.

His Majesty the King was represented by Lord Dumore, and others present included members of the Cabinet, Mr. Stanley Baldwin, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Sir John Simon, Lord Reading and a number of prominent Indians in native dress.

First greetings were offered by Lord Irwin's sons, and in the crowds that pushed to congratulate him, he must have shaken the hands of at least 500 people.

The President of the Chief of the Punjab Association placed a garland of daffodils around the retiring Viceroy's neck, and loud cheering broke out as he set out from the station, where the determined effort of a small group of boozers was easily drowned.

Lord Irwin is to leave for Yorkshire on May 4 to see his 92-year-old father, Lord Halifax.

Interviewed by Reuter at the station, Lord Irwin said that although the situation in India was much better than it was, nobody should suppose that there were not great difficulties to be overcome, but there was no reason why they should not be surmounted.

H.M. the King has approved the appointment of the ex-Viceroy of India, Lord Irwin, as a Knight of the Garter.—Reuter.

NO AGREEMENT ON EXTRALITY.

British Demand Not Acceptable.

CHINA OBDRATE.

Shanghai, Yesterday. Reporting on the latest developments in the extrality negotiations before the Legislative Yuan, the Foreign Minister, Mr. C. T. Wang, stated yesterday that it would be difficult to come to an agreement with France and Japan.

Mr. Wang added that the British demand for the retention of consular jurisdiction within fifty li of certain Treaty Ports, and a similar American demand for a ten-mile radius, was unacceptable by China. Britain has waived three out of her four original points, but insisted on the maintenance of Consular jurisdiction at Shanghai, Tientsin, Hankow, and Canton. China had refused to yield, and Sino-British negotiations had broken down. There was no hope of a resumption at present.

Chiang's Position.

Sir Miles Lampson is expected to leave for Peking shortly to watch the development of the struggle between the Kuomintang leaders. Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, who is accused by his opponents of aiming at the Presidency, setting up a Constitutional Government and dominating the Kuomintang, has so far remained supreme. He has been greatly strengthened by the advent of Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang at Nanking last week.

Marshal Chiang appears to be out-maneuvering his opponents by sowing discord at Canton and tactfully compromising with disgruntled political leaders at Nanking, where the Peoples' Conference will meet on May 5, according to schedule.

Among other things, it is expected that the Congress will declare a unilateral abrogation of extrality.—Reuter.

GENERAL ELECTION?

WILL BE FOUGHT SOONER
THAN EXPECTED.

CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUE.

Rugby, Saturday. Recent speeches by the Prime Minister and other members of the Government are interpreted by the Manchester Guardian as indicating the possibilities of the next General Election being fought on a constitutional issue.

It is pointed out that resentment at the treatment of a certain Government Bill by the House of Lords has been put in the forefront of the Prime Minister's election messages; and in a speech last night he emphasised that the House of Lords must be subjected to the will of the people.

The First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. A. V. Alexander, at the same meeting, also declared that the House of Lords must be dealt with; and Mr. Wedgwood Benn, Secretary for India, announced at the meeting his views on the same issue.—British Wireless Service.
